WASHINGTON TELEGRAMS.

PROTESTS RECEIVED BY THE INTER-STATE COMMISSIONERS.

The Transcontinental Roads and the Clipper Difference—The Pacific Coast Trade. No Financial Stringency Feared—Various Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The interstate commissioners have received a protest from Woodruff Sutton, of the firm of Sutton & Co., New York City, against the granting of the application of the transcontinental railroads for a permanent suspension of the fourth section of the law. Sutton & Co. are engaged in transporting freight from New York and Philadelphia to San Francisco and Portland in clipper ships, and the author of the protest declares that the transcontinental roads made war against the clippers instead of the latter making war against the railways. He asserts that it has been the custom of the railroads to require shippers of freight from New York to the Pacific coast to enter into written contracts to ship all freight by the railroads, and that as an inducement contractors were only charged six cents per pound, while non-contractors were charged twelve cents per pound.

Mr. Sultan asserts that the effect of the transcontinental road combining against the clipper ships, has been to reduce the number of firms engaged in the latter business from eight to two, and that now only the cheapest and coarsest grades of freight are shipped by clippers. He expresses the opinion that the Pacific Mail Steamship company is interested with the transcontinental roads in this effort to procure a permanent suspension of the fourth section, and in the interest of the clippers and of the shippers he protests against such suspension.

Financial Affairs.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—It is an interesting financial fact that the large pension and interest disbursements charged by the treasury bookkeepers to the accounts for May were not actually paid out until the present month. In view of this, and expenditures soon to be made, treasury officers do not contemplate any financial stringency. After July 1, they say, $19,000,000 of remaining 8 per cent. bonds are to be redeemed. About $7,000,000, interest on 4 per cent. bonds, to be paid, besides the expenditures of the increased appropriations incident to the beginning of each new fiscal year. These officers feel justified in predicting that during July and a part of August at least, there will not be a withdrawal of money from circulation greater than the amount to be paid out.

Free Delivery Extended.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Col. Bates, superintendent of the free delivery system, post-office department, has directed that the free delivery or carrier system be established in the following cities, to take effect July 1: Colorado, Pueblo; Connecticut, Danbury; Dakota, Sioux Falls; Illinois, Champaign, Evanston; Kansas, Wellington; Maine, Bath; New York, Rome; Ohio, Middletown, Fiqua, Tiffin; Rhode Island, Westerly; Wisconsin, Wausau; Texas, Sherman; Vermont, Brattleborough, Montpelier; Virginia, Portsmouth.

Purchase of Bonds.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—In view of the various statements which have been made on the subject, it can be stated with absolute positiveness that the administration has not determined upon or planned for the purchase of United States bonds at market rates, and that while this, like other expedients, will be held in reserve, it will not be availed of except so far as may be necessary by future circumstances not yet apparent.

Imported Yarns.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Assistant Secretary Maynard has listened to arguments by a committee of the Philadelphia Textile association, in favor of including the expense of reeling and skeining in estimating the value of imported yarns.

An Officer Vindicated.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Secretary Whitney has approved the report of a court of inquiry fully vindicating Assistant Paymaster Sullivan, who was accused of negligence.

Effects of Prohibition in Texas.

EL PASO, Tex., June 9.—The prohibition agitation is commencing to have already a serious effect on El Paso and Western Texas generally. Next August the prohibitory amendment to the Texas constitution will be voted on by the people of the state. There is a mere possibility of its being adopted. In that case much of the retail trade of El Paso will be transferred across the river to Paso del Norte. There is an existing law, going in effect July 4, which surrounds the liquor traffic in Texas with great difficulties. Paso del Norte is in the Mexican zona libre and pays no duties on either American or European goods imported into it. This fact accounts for the number of agents of wholesale houses from other sections of the country who are in Paso del Norte at the present time, looking for favorable opinions for mercantile enterprises.

An Election in Mexico.

EL PASO, Tex., June 9.—The election for members of congress from the state of Chihuahua has just been held. The contest was between the Pacheco party and the anti-Pacheco. The opposing party has carried the day in the congressional election in the district of Paso del Norte. Carlos Pacheco was governor of the state when President Diaz called him into his cabinet as minister of public works. He appointed as his substitute during his unexpected term, Senor Maceyra, who has been very unpopular.

Threat of a Railroad.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 9.—The New York & New Haven Railroad company threatens to parallel the Derby line unless the city of New Haven accepts its offer to buy the road for $800,000.

Anti-Sunday Shavers.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 9.—A petition signed by 4,000 Chicago barbers was presented in the Illinois senate yesterday for the closing of all barber shops on Sunday.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE TREATMENT.

The Sad Death of a Lady Who Depended On It In Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 9.—Mrs. Hattie Uddike, forty-three years old, wife of a prominent cattle ranch owner of Topeka, died suddenly at the residence of a friend, No. 1211 Tracy avenue, at 11:45 o'clock last night. The coroner said this afternoon: "Mrs. Uddike, who was suffering from dropsy, and who had been under the care of homeopathic physicians in Topeka, Kan., and in Davenport, Iowa, came to Kansas City two weeks ago, and placed herself under the Christian science treatment of Mrs. Emma Beahan. This treatment consists in trying to convince yourself that you are not diseased, as you think, but suffering from imagination. About ten days ago sensations of numbness and burning set in, and Mrs. Uddike was taken with a severe pain in her right leg and knee. Two days later a small spot of gangrene made its appearance on the instep of the right foot, and gradually extended until the right leg below the knee was covered with it at the time of death. The Christian science doctor was not aware that gangrene had set in, having no knowledge of medicine. The woman suffered great torture during the last eight days. She was given no opiates whatever until yesterday, when her husband gave her some opium to ease her pain."

Mrs. Beahan paid her several visits daily, and no physician was called in. Mr. Uddike arrived in the city last Tuesday. The coroner gave a certificate to the effect that death was owing to mortification of the right foot and leg. The remains will be shipped this evening to New York, where the deceased formerly resided.

Charges Against a King.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—The Honolulu Gazette renews its attack on the king for alleged bribery in the opium matter. It prints sixty affidavits from fourteen persons. These charge that the king on December 20 received $30,000 in a basket; that a few days later a check for $10,000 was handed to the king personally; that a few days later $30,000 gold coin with a baked pig were given to the king personally; and that subsequently $15,000 more was demanded, and was paid to him by a Chinaman named Aki. The king, it is asserted, promised to grant Aki a license for selling opium, but gave it to another Chinaman named Chung Lung. It is asserted that some of Aki's money has been returned, and the matter has been put in the hands of the Chinese minister at Washington.

Up Among the Lakes.

PROSPECT HOUSE, N. Y., June 9.—The president spent the day fishing, and though he caught nothing he enjoyed the tramp through the woods and the sail on the lake. On Thursday the party will start for home, driving over to Paul Smiths, where they will take the special train on which they came up. The train will go over the Vermont Central, reaching Albany early Friday morning. The president and party will take breakfast with Governor Hill at the executive mansion, and after a stay of three hours will leave Albany for Washington, reaching home probably Friday evening. There will be no public reception to the president at Albany.

American Home Missionary Society.

SARATOGA, N. Y., June 9.—The sixty-first anniversary of the American Home Missionary society was called to order at the Methodist church in this city at 7:30 Tuesday evening. About 300 delegates were present from various parts of the United States. The annual sermon was delivered by Rev. Frederick A. Noble, D. D., of Chicago. Among those present were Dr. Seely, ex-president of Amherst college; Mrs. G. M. Lane, of Michigan; Mrs. Drake, of Dakota; Rev. George F. Pentrost, Rev. J. G. Merrill, D. D., St. Louis; Rev. Michael Burnham, Springfield, Mass., and many others.

Subscriptions to the Grant Monument.

NEW YORK, June 9.—United States Senator Joseph E. Brown, the Georgia railroad millionaire, has subscribed to the Grant monument fund organized by ex-Governor Dorrheimer through the Star. Among other noted men who added their names to the list yesterday are Secretary of the Navy Whitney, Hon. W. W. Phelps, Henry D. Hurry, president of the New York fire department; Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts; Tiffany & Co., and Mr. E. B. Harper. The subscriptions for the six days since the fund started have amounted to nearly $900.

Embracing All Classes.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The banquet given last evening at Delmonico's to Premier Honore Mercier, of Quebec, was a representative, political, legal, mercantile and religious gathering. Brief speeches were made by Erasmus Wilson, Judge Gildersleeve and other well known gentlemen. Reciprocity between the United States and Canada was the chief topic of discussion, and was earnestly advocated by Premier Mercier.

Skull Crushed by a Brick.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 9.—Louis Bueger, aged twenty-three, unmarried, employed on the new St. Mary's church, was fatally injured this morning by a brick falling from one of the towers, striking him on the head and crushing his skull.

IN THE WORLD OF LABOR.

BOSTON THREATENED WITH CHICAGO'S TROUBLES.

The Eight-Hour Law Submitted to Local Assemblies of Miners—St. Paul Carpenters Strike—The Printers in Convention at Buffalo—General Labor News.

BOSTON, Mass., June 9.—Another great struggle between the master builders and their employes, which may extend through the country, is threatened. The master builders have decided to bring certain matters in controversy to a decided issue at once, and the compact made with the employes' union in April for the current season is likely to be abandoned. The chief ground for dispute is the action of several unions in the building trades which have demanded the discharge of non-union employes. Many small strikes have been thus caused, but the unions in most cases have steadfastly maintained their position. The master builders have thoroughly perfected their national organization, and there is authority for saying that they will soon force the issue to a conclusion.

Miners in Convention.

CINCINNATI, June 9.—The miners' convention was occupied chiefly with the reports of the committee on resolutions and the state of order. The important points made by the committee on resolutions declared in favor of a working day of eight hours, a system of arbitration and collection of statistics. The proposed changes will be submitted to a vote of the local assemblies of National District Assembly No. 133. The report of the committee on the state of the order showed the various divisions to be in a flourishing condition and every point recovering from the effect of local strikes. Some remedy will be provided for the abolition of the convict system in the south and west. Organizers will at once be put in the field for the good of the order and to extend the membership. Of 300,000 miners in the United States only a small portion are included in the organization. The election of officers resulted as follows: Master Workman, W. T. Lewis, of Shawnee, O.; Worthy Foreman, Isaiah Phillips, of West Elizabeth, Pa.; re-elected; Secretary-Treasurer, Lewis Janies, of New Straitsville, O.; re-elected; Statistician, T. W. Davis, of Macanoy City, Pa.; Auditor, Joseph Malise, of McKeesport, Pa.

St. Paul Carpenters' Strike.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 9.—The 1,300 carpenters who are on a strike now for nine hours to constitute a day's labor held meetings last evening, at which they reiterated their determination to hold out until their demand is acceded to. The contractors held a meeting and passed resolutions fixing ten as the number of hours to constitute a day's labor, calling on citizens and officials to sympathize with them in this action, and expressing a determination not to yield an inch to the demands of the men. The building operations all over the city are practically suspended, so far as the carpenter work is concerned.

Printers at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, June 9.—At the Typographical convention in this city President Almon was re-elected on the second ballot unanimously. The other candidates were Mr. Duncan, of New York; Mr. Miller, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Mr. C. H. Cole, of Chicago. Other officers elected: Edward T. Plank, San Francisco, first vice president; Chas. Gamewell, Washington, of the Pressmen's union, second vice president; David M. Pascoe, Philadelphia, secretary-treasurer.

Fuel Exhausted.

CHICAGO, June 9.—The coke at the North Chicago rolling mills is exhausted and the fires will be banked this evening and over six hundred men will be out of work in consequence. There is still a sufficient quantity of pig iron to keep the balance of the works running for a week, by which time it is hoped the strike at the mines will have ended. Should it still continue the entire works will have to suspend operations and 2,500 men in all will be out of work.

The Amalgamated Association.

PITTSBURG, June 9.—President William Woino concluded his annual address and report at this session of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers convention. The president spoke at length in reference to the conflict between the Amalgamated association and Knights of Labor.

Detectives Vindicated.

CINCINNATI, June 9.—The police board, after hearing the evidence in the once celebrated case of ex-Detectives Kushman, Grogan and Truss for allowing gambling houses to run, on which charge they were dismissed from the force last fall, reinstated them. Messrs. Boyle, Topp and Dodds, were convinced of the men's innocence, but Dr. Minor believed them guilty and desired to impose a $100 fine. The detectives, in their evidence, cleared Mr. Dodds of the imputation put upon him at the time of conniving at allowing those houses to run. Kushman will be put on the new fly force, Truss will run a beat and Grogan will be appointed special clerk, if he so desires.

Great Time in Findlay.

FINDLAY, O., June 9.—The great natural gas celebration opened under the most favorable auspices. The city is decorated in the most lavish manner, fifty-eight arches span the main street, all bearing mottoes, and all arranged with gas pipes and burners, which, upon each night of the festival, will be lighted and permitted to burn all night. Thirty thousand gas jets will be in flame besides those heretofore in use. The thirty-one gas wells of Findlay have all been piped into the city to aid in the illumination. The crowds have been coming in all day and it is estimated that there will be at least thirty thousand strangers in the city.

Actors' Fund Election.

NEW YORK, June 9.—At the actors' meeting yesterday the present officers were re-elected for the ensuing year. A letter was received from President Cleveland accepting an honorary membership in the fund. The question of establishing an actors' home in this city was referred to the trustees.

UP IN ARMS.

Batavia Excited Over Firebombs—Armed Men Out All Night.

BATAVIA, O., June 9.—Batavia was the scene of great excitement last night. During the past eighteen months there have been some seven or eight fires, all of incendiary origin, and the Teasdale fire of yesterday, also incendiary, tended to create an uneasy feeling. At 9:30 a. m. an alarm of fire was sounded. The large barn and stable combined of Col. William Howard, on Main street, was discovered in flames. A bed-blok in the lower part of the barn was blazing fiercely. It had been ignited by means of matches and paper, fragments of which were found near by. Fortunately the early discovery of the fire prevented a conflagration and it was extinguished with little damage. When, half an hour later, Col. Howard retired to his residence near by he found it filled with smoke.

The alarm of fire was again rung and the engine company promptly responded. This time the flames were discovered in a closet in the very center of the house. After the fire was put out a dozen or more matches were found strewn on the floor. When it became known that both attempts at a fire, following so soon on the conflagration of the morning, were incendiary, the excitement reached fever heat. Theory after theory was advanced, but no two men agreed. All were unanimous on one point—a long rope and a short shirt should any suspected person be captured. Twenty-five or more armed men patrolled the streets during the rest of the night, but no further fires were discovered.

The organization of a vigilance committee is favored by all the citizens, and it will probably be done to-day. Developments as to the origin of the fires are expected shortly, and then there will be mob law to pay.

NOT YELLOW FEVER.

So Says Dr. Mereno Regarding the Fatal Epidemic in Key West.

KEY WEST, Fla., June 9.—There was only one new case of yellow fever to-day, and no deaths were reported. The weather continues pleasant. To date there have been nineteen cases and six deaths. The new cases do not prove as fatal as the first. Dr. Mereno and other Cuban physicians of this city deny positively the prevalence of yellow fever here, being inclined to believe that the disease is merely an acclimating fever of a peculiarly fatal type unless properly treated. Dr. Mereno claims that the physicians who have attended the persons taken sick so far are not competent to judge of or prescribe for yellow fever. Indeed, he is willing, he says, to prove to the members of the board of health and to the physicians who have proclaimed a yellow fever epidemic in Key West, by the post mortem examination of any of the victims, that they have erred in pronouncing the disease yellow fever. Dr. Mereno being, as he claims, long connected with the military hospital at Havana, in which genuine yellow fever is epidemic from January to December, must have had an opportunity to study the disease, had certainly ought to know something of it.

Corrupt Political Ring.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The World this morning publishes a long article on the quarantine commission, alleging that it is a political machine run for the benefit of the commissioners. It asks why Thomas C. Platt should have held on to the office of commissioner at a salary of $2,500 a year if there was not something big in it. It instances the fact that though Mr. Platt is president of a large express company, he still accepts this small salary as commissioner, and that even when elected United States senator he did not give it up. The article then purports to show that the "quarantine ring" annually divides among its members from $50,000 to $100,000 and has become a leading political power in the state. Dr. Smith, the health officer, is described as an incompetent country physician brought down by Mr. Platt to be used by him. The charges made are all covered by the recent alleged exposures of the so-called "rag disinfecting ring," and contain nothing new except in the matter of detail of the revenues of the commission from fees, etc.

A Conductor's Gallantry.

ASHLAND, Wis., June 9.—Yesterday a special train on the Milwaukee, Lake Shore & Western road, bearing the directors of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, was the scene of a thrilling incident. While the train was backing out from a spur leading to an iron mine near Hurley, a four-year-old girl stepped on the track and remained there in spite of the cries of warning from the approaching party. As they neared the child Conductor O'Brien leaped from the coach, secured the child and swung himself and burden from the track. Phil Armour shortly afterward presented O'Brien with a $50 greenback, with the thanks of the party for his gallantry.

Retaliated in Kind.

OMAHA, Neb., June 9.—For some time the stock growers and shippers of this state have been suffering from an unjust quarantine established against Nebraska by the state of Colorado. When the quarantine was first established, the Nebraska live stock commission protested. Correspondence ensued which was terminated by an abrupt refusal on the part of Colorado. After a full consideration of the matter, the Nebraska commission has resolved upon the declaration of a quarantine against Colorado. The facts have been laid before the governor with the usual formal request for a proclamation.

Searching for Counterfeit.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Quite a number of counterfeit nickels are said to be in circulation throughout the west, and the secret service has been enlisted to hunt it down. Yesterday a number were received and exhibited to experts, one of whom declared that they were good and the other that they were not. The coins have been sent to the mint at Philadelphia, where their value will be determined and published.

Suicide in a Cellar.

MADISONVILLE, June 9.—Levi Utio was found hanging to the rafters in the cellar of his late home at Madisonville. One of his children discovered him. Utio was fifty years old, the father of seven children. He has had family troubles and to that cause his suicide is attributed.

SEPTIMUS D. CLARKE, of Lewisburg, is a candidate for Doorkeeper of the next Kentucky House of Representatives.

THE "Free-Turnpikers" of Bourbon County are without a candidate for the Legislature, William Squires, the nominee, having withdrawn.

The recent municipal election at Ashland resulted as follows: Councilmen, John Means, D. White, John Harris and John Spicer; School Board, D. B. Meacham.

The Republican State ticket has at last been completed. S. D. Pinkerton, of Versailles, is on the list as the candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction. He will make an "active" canvass.

COLONEL BENNETT YOUNG states that the Louisville Southern will be completed about the end of the year. About 2,000 men are now at work upon the road, and its construction is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

HON. J. J. NESBITT, of Owingsville, has been unanimously nominated for Representative in the Legislature by the Democrats of Bath and Rowan. He is a brother of Messrs T. Y. and Ed. Nesbitt, and Mrs. Sam M. Hall, of this city.

Now Mt. Sterling wants to have the Georgetown college moved over to that place! What on earth is the matter with the people generally? Wouldn't it be a good idea to have all of our colleges and schools built on wheels like photograph cars in the future?—Poultice News.

The present boom in tobacco will place a neat little fortune in the pockets of a number of buyers. Waller Sharp, of Sharpsburg, sold 110 hogsheads at Cincinnati, the other day at an average of 11 cents. The lot brought $2,500 more than Mr. Sharp expected. He made $10,000 on the deal, and has 1,500,000 pounds yet on hand.

The recent Democratic primary over in Brown County resulted in the nomination of the following: Representative, W. W. Pennell; Probate Judge, Eli B. Parker; Clerk, Dr. Y. Stephenson; Commissioner, Fred Bauer; Prosecuting Attorney, D. St. Pearson; Treasurer, J. B. Richey; Infirmary Director, long term, A. D. Ellis; short term, R. Waters. This is the first primary held in that county for years under the popular vote system. E. A. Tissandier and Dr. Y. Stephenson were tie for Clerk, and the nomination was decided by lot.

Storm Signals.

As the coming of a great storm is heralded by the display of cautionary signals, so is the approach of that dread and fatal disease, consumption of the lungs, usually announced in advance by pimples, blotches, eruptions, ulcers, glandular swellings, and kindred outward manifestations of the internal blood poison, which, if not promptly expelled from the system, attacks the delicate tissues of the lungs, causing them to ulcerate and break down. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is the great remedy for all diseases having their origin in bad blood. It improves the appetite and digestion, increases nutrition and builds up the wasted system.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Suit, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at J. C. Pecor & Co.'s and S. P. Campbell & Co.'s, Aberdeen, O.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this great discovery for consumption free at J. C. Pecor & Co.'s and S. P. Campbell & Co.'s, Aberdeen, O.

PARIS AND BRUSSELS.

KING LEOPOLD TALKS BY TELEPHONE WITH PRESIDENT GREVY.

A Meeting of Rulers Which Caused No Anxiety in the Diplomatic World—An Extraordinary Impulse Given to Gambling—Journalistic Enterprise.

On Feb. 3 of the present year, a date to be remembered by historians, the telephone was ready to work experimentally between the Belgian and French capitals, and King Leopold determined upon having recourse to it to interview President Grevy. He requested the latter to have his ears open at the Elysee at 3 p. m., while his majesty himself would go to the Brussels stock exchange, which is the terminus of the international telephone on the Belgian side. The appointment was kept, and the advantage of the telephonic union immediately became obvious. In the first place, the meeting between the two heads of state took place without any of the fastidious pageantry which such occasions impose upon unfortunate rulers when they meet face to face. King Leopold dispensed with all kinds of retinue and state carriages to go and confer with the French president; indeed, he spoke in the undress uniform he had been wearing at home all the morning; and as to M. Grevy, he is said to have been clad in his dressing gown and slippers during his talk with the king of the Belgians and sovereign of the Congo free state. Besides, there was none of the usual political fuss about the business. The interview having been arranged only a few minutes beforehand, there had been no time for journalists to horrify Europe by speculations about the threatening alliance or the terrific wars which would result from the tete a tete; and the export of Russia, Austria and Germany must have immediately understood how convenient it would be if they could visit each other every year in the same manner. Instead of dragging all Europe's thoughts and fears with them to Kremsier or Skiernevicke. Furthermore, the conversation having gone on in a tone sufficiently loud to be overheard, any slight anxiety the meeting may have caused to the diplomatic world was allayed within an hour, when it became known that there had been no dark scheming of king and president, and in fact nothing more than such innocent talk as the following:

"How is the weather on your side?" "Raining." "Oh! the sun's out here." "What a fine thing the telephone is!" "Certainly; I hear your majesty perfectly well." "And I catch the sound of a fly buzzing around your excellency's ears."

The beginning which the Paris-Brussels telephone made, when it was opened to the public, twenty-three days later, caused many superstitious folks to turn pale. For, strange to say, the first communication which the wires conveyed was the news of a terrible calamity; the earthquake in the south of France and the Riviera, by which so many thousands of houses were wrecked and so many hundreds of lives lost. However, outsiders only looked upon the circumstance as ominous. The greater number of people using the international telephone, so far, are stockbrokers and journalists, a set of practical persons whose minds are generally pretty free from superstition, and who are too busy to be given to disagreeable broodings. So the telephone has escaped the fate of those messengers who, when they bore evil news to the eastern potentates, had their unlucky heads chopped off for the trouble they gave. Far from suffering any punishment, the Franco-Belgian telephone is increasing its popularity every day, in Belgium at least.

An extraordinary impulse has been given to the stock exchange. Of course, our quotations have at all times been swayed to a great extent by the prices of the Paris bourse. Now that the telephone records the fluctuation of the French funds every minute, you may conceive the advantage which all stock brokers and bankers, availing themselves of this means of communication, are able to secure in their dealings. It is just as though a certain number of betting men in New York were kept posted every half second as to the movements of the competitors for the Epsom Derby while the Derby was being run. Brussels gamblers now follow the quotation race on the Paris bourse yard per yard, inch per inch. One after another come and closet themselves in the tiny enclosure where the telephone apparatus is secluded within wadded walls, between which the sound and the person catching it are equally stifled, for the whole of the cabin, including the stool to sit upon, and the desk to lean and write upon, covers less than a square yard of space. In a few minutes purple, perspiring faces and hasty feet emerge from the closet, the owners of said faces and feet holding at their pencil's end a bit of yet unpublished news, which may mean thousands of dollars won or lost within the next minute or two.

On a journalistic enterprise this international telephone exercises perhaps a greater influence still. In order to grasp the facts, we must first bear in mind that competition of all kinds, financial, commercial or literary, is invariably much keener in small places than in large ones. In his description of an election day at Eatonville, Charles Dickens shows that political feeling ran very much higher in that nutshell of a town than in huge London. So it may be said that the race for money, for success, for news, is very much livelier in Brussels than in London or Paris. The promptness with which the Belgian capital availed itself of the inland telephone is a case in point. At the present hour the number of persons using the telephone in Paris is above 5,000; it is the same in London and 1,500 in Brussels. Of course, these figures will appear ridiculously small in such a progress hunting part of the world as America. I have read somewhere of there being 380,000 telephones at work throughout the United States, and that the citizens of Guayaquil, Ecuador, have completed their telephonic communications before thinking of paving their streets. But then we are not concerned at present with the New World; our comparison is between the countries of the Old World, and it shows Belgium to be more enterprising and fond of useful novelty than any of its great neighbors.

As the above figures show, the proportion of people employing the telephone in London is hardly one out of 700; in Paris one out of every 500, and in Brussels, where the telephone should be very much less requisite, seeing that the distances are greatly shorter, it is one out of every 200. Indeed, the Belgians have been in such hot haste to enjoy the fruits of Edison's invention that they have not wasted time, as other countries have, in contriving a telephone of their own; they adapted Edison's to their wants just as it was, so much so in fact that the Edison company, established in London, is at this very moment prosecuting the Belgian one for counterfeit before five different Belgian courts: Brussels, Liege, Namur, Antwerp and Louvain.—Brussels Cor. Kansas City Journal.

Moving Into New Houses.

Two architects were discussing the frequency of cases where persons die soon after moving into new houses, which they have built for their use. Said one architect: "That such cases are frequent I believe. I have known three or four in my own practice. But the deaths are due to exposure during the erection of the houses, or to damp walls, or to waiting too long before deciding to build. Some men don't go to an architect until they are about ready to succumb to old age." The other replied: "I, too, have known a number of cases of persons dying just after they have settled themselves in their new houses, and sometimes I have thought that their fate is in accordance with scripture. What is that passage about the man who tore down his barns and built greater, and whose soul was required of him that night?"—Chicago Times.

The Dangerous "Derelicts."

The last pilot chart issued by the navy department shows eleven "derelicts" floating this summer in the highway of steamship travel to Europe. Many of them are also in the path of the greatest coastwise traffic. An iceberg is not more dangerous than one of these half-sunken, water-logged vessels, and yet there is no way provided for their removal. Congress has never given to the navy department the means to remove them, although it has repeatedly been urged to do so. Ten per cent. of the annual losses at sea is due to "derelicts." Many a vessel strikes one of these wrecks and goes down hardly knowing the cause of the disaster.—New York Sun.

Deafness of School Children.

"I see the school teachers are examining our children's eyes. They ought to examine their ears as well."
"Why?"
"Cause I saw five boys playing marbles to-day. They all stood within a yard of my window and within two yards of each other, and yet had to yell at each other as though they were a mile apart."—Fottville Chronicle.

A Forged Dispatch.

CHICAGO, June 9.—A month ago a dispatch signed R. W. C., presumably standing for R. W. Clark & Co., was sent to New York conveying the alleged information that Lisinsky, acting as a broker for the wheat clique, had unloaded 3,000,000 bushels on the market, and that prices had gone to pieces. A result of this dispatch was to break the New York market, causing serious loss to the big bears of Gotham. It was soon discovered that the telegram was a forgery and prices rallied. An investigation was instituted by the directors of the board of trade here, and in the course of revelations suspicion pointed to Lisinsky, whose name figured as broker on the dispatch. A large number of witnesses were examined. Lisinsky was present in an ante-room, expecting to be called, but before he was reached an adjournment was taken. The investigation will be continued at the board's next session.

Not Sustained By Facts.

CHICAGO, June 9.—A Washington special to the News says: "The Knights of Labor in their arraignment of congress, claim that the passage of the trade dollar bill put $4,000,000 into the hands of speculators. The rest of the statements in the documents printed are quite as inaccurate. Less than seven million trade dollars have been redeemed, and they have now ceased altogether to come. At a 10 per cent. profit the speculators could not have made more than $700,000, and this amount must have been reduced by the enormous number of mutilated coins which the treasury will not redeem and which the holders will have to sell as bullion. The speculators also lost the interest on their money for several years, which at 6 per cent. must have more than exceeded their profits. It is the opinion at the treasury that few of them came out without actual loss."

Base Ball Pitcher Injured.

TORONTO, Ont., June 9.—During the last half of the seventh inning, Hughes, the Newark pitcher, was hit by a pitched ball on the left side of the head behind the ear. He fell to the ground unconscious. Two doctors were promptly in attendance, and he was carried into the dressing room and restored to consciousness. He then made fair progress toward recovery until to-night, when he was taken with a relapse while walking in a corridor of the Rossin house. His condition is now considered critical.

Ministerial Proceedings.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—The Evangelical Lutheran ministerium considered the question whether or not it would help sustain the German professorship in Muhlenberg college. The synod declined to make the appropriation, but referred the matter to a committee with power to make collections. This leaves them in practically the same position they were before. All congregations some time during next October will make free will offerings at memorial services in behalf of Muhlenberg college.

Railroad Collision.

PITTSBURG, June 9.—Train No. 1, known as fast line, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway, which left this city at 11:10 last night, collided with the rear of a freight train near Columbiana, O., at an early hour this morning. Two cars of merchandise and the passenger engine were wrecked. Engineer Overlander, of the fast line, was seriously injured, and the fireman was also badly bruised. Trains were delayed two hours.

The Chinamen Released.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Two Chinamen who arrived in Irons on the Normandie from Havre, were liberated to-day by instructions of the state department, and went home in Newburyport. There was no reason for putting them in Irons, except that the steamship people feared they would get into trouble for bringing Chinese into the country, and secured them to prevent their running away.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—The secretary of the Produce exchange has received reports from all parts of the state, and bases upon them the statement that the wheat crop will fall considerably below that of last year.

The Fight Between the Two Gas Companies Still On.

Suit to Enforce Specific Performance of the Contract Between K. A. Cochran and W. B. McDonough.

New interest has been added to the fight between the two gas companies by the filing of a suit in the Circuit Court by Robert A. Cochran, plaintiff, against W. B. McDonough, Charles H. White, G. S. Judd, W. S. Moores, Samuel S. Riley, Thomas Wells and the Citizens' Gas Light Company, defendants. The petition was filed late last evening, and the decisive contest between these two corporations is now on.

The charges set forth in the petition are as follows: W. B. McDonough was the owner of 310 shares of the capital stock of the new company, of the value of $100 each, and was the holder of sixteen of the first mortgage bonds of said company of the value of $500 each, amounting to $8,000, with coupons attached, this being one-half of the existing mortgage made by said company on all its property. On May 7th, Mr. Cochran claims he entered into a contract with McDonough by which McDonough sold and assigned to him all the interest and property set forth above. This property was to be assigned and delivered to Mr. Cochran, or such person or persons as he might designate, without unnecessary delay. The price to be paid was $12,750, $6,375 cash in hand on delivery of the bonds and the transfer of the stock, and the balance on the election and installment of a new board of directors of said company on or before the first Monday in next July.

McDonough was also to deliver to Mr. Cochran his proxy to vote the said shares at any and all meetings, regular or called, of said company, which might be held before said transfer of stock and delivery of bonds.

The petition then charges that Charles H. White, G. S. Judd, W. S. Moores, Samuel S. Riley and Thomas Wells, each and all having full knowledge of the said contract, "sent a part of their number in search of the said McDonough, who sought him out and approached him to induce him to violate his said contract with plaintiff, and by importunity and promises and, by threatening to delay, obstruct and hinder him, McDonough, in the due performance of his said contract with plaintiff, wrongfully induced him to violate and disregard said contract," and thereupon to sell and transfer said stock and bonds to them, the defendants above named, or to some one else for their use. Mr. Cochran says he doesn't know exactly to whom the stock and bonds were transferred, but the defendants, he charges, were the real parties in interest. McDonough, it is charged, is still willing that said contract shall be executed specifically, according to its terms, and the plaintiff is still ready and willing and able to comply with his part of the contract.

McDonough, it is charged, is a non-resident and has no property or estate in this State, and Mr. Cochran claims that he is wholly without remedy unless he can have a specific execution of said contract.

The petition closes with a prayer for the specific enforcement of the contract, and that McDonough be compelled to transfer said stock and deliver said bonds, &c., according to the terms of his said contract. There is also a prayer that the sale and transfer by McDonough to Messrs. White, Judd, Moores, Riley and other shall be held tor naught and declared null and void.

The above are the main points in the petition, which is a lengthy one, covering some eight or ten pages of legal cap. The contract between Mr. Cochran and Mr. McDonough are filed and made part of the petition. Summons was issued at once against each of the defendants except McDonough, and an order was entered against him warning him to appear and make full answer to the petition. Hon. W. H. Wadsworth & Son and A. M. J. Cochran are the plaintiff's attorneys.

Double Murder in Rowan.

A dispatch from Flemingsburg this morning says a gang of outlaws, headed by the notorious Craig Tolliver, committed a dastardly double murder at Morehead yesterday. They took Professor W. H. Logan and brother, Jack, from their home to the woods, and then, while the two men were praying, riddled their bodies with bullets. Excitement runs high, and relatives of the Logans have been ordered out of the county. The two killed are sons of H. M. Logan, and were school teachers.

The dispatch was highly sensational, and no doubt greatly exaggerated the affair.

The trotting races at Paris will take place next week.

HAYSWOOD SEMINARY.

The Art Reception Largely Attended.—An Excellent Display of Paintings, Drawings and Wood-Carving.

The art reception at Hayswood Female Seminary last evening attracted a large audience, notwithstanding the stormy weather. The different rooms were brilliantly lighted, and a number of fancy-colored lanterns about the lawn lent an additional loveliness to the scene. Haucke's Reed and Brass Band was present, and rendered a number of selections during the evening.

The work of the pupils in the art department of the school for the past session was displayed in the parlors of the Seminary. It was an excellent display, and merited the very flattering compliments received from the crowds who visited the parlors during the reception. The class in painting has been in charge of Miss Lyon, the past session, while the class in carving and ornamental wood-work has been in charge of Miss Sue Bierbower. The work is highly creditable alike to pupil and teacher. The progress exhibited in the work was specially gratifying to the parents and relatives of the pupils, as well as the friends of the school, and evidenced the thorough and efficient care and instruction bestowed upon the class.

A full list of the articles exhibited is not given. In ornamental wood-work were seen a handsome cabinet, by Miss Lyon, and some very neat specimens of carving, by Miss Grace Campbell and Masters Ashby and Horace Cochran.

Miss Sue Bierbower—A pastoral scene.

Miss Sue A. Hays—Portraits of her father, Rev. John S. Hays, D. D., and Rev. George P. Hays, D. D., in crayon; Horses' head and head of a child.

Miss Mary D. Toup—"Century and Vase," a study in still life, representing an open magazine on a table; "Geranium," a study from nature.

The commencement exercises will be held this evening in the First Presbyterian Church, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock.

Concert and Supper.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

A SUMMARY OF IMPORTANT EVENTS ABROAD.

The Affairs in Afghanistan Growing More Serious Day By Day—Magazine Guns for Austria—A Dyke Gives Way—Queen Kapiolani in London—Foreign News Notes.

LONDON, June 9.—Dispatches from India represent the situation in Afghanistan as growing more serious day by day. The Ameer, apprehensive of losing his power through the successive defeats his forces have met at the hands of the Ghilzais, and the recent revolt of the Shinwaris against further payment of tribute, is in a pitiable state of physical and mental health, and the Indian government sees in this fact the necessity for propping up his tottering throne or assuming full possession of his dominion.

Russia, too, is taking advantage of the situation to fortify herself at Khoja Saleh and other places within the zone from which she was debarred by the delimitations of the British commission, and obviously intends to remain there if she can. The Muscovite's press counsel the czar to disregard British interests in Asia and look to his own by advancing Russian troops from Khoja Saleh, where they are massed in force, and occupying Herat, in event of the British occupation of Caladhar.

The Indian government is advised that Russian agents are still intriguing with the governor of Badakhshan, the most northeastern of Russia's advance toward Herat there will be nothing left for that official to do but to submit to Russian dictation as to his action, since he will be entirely isolated. Military preparations in India are being pushed with all possible rapidity, and an army corps will be en route to Candahar within a short time.

New Magazine Guns.

VIENNA, June 9.—The new magazine guns of which the government has recently purchased a large supply, will be issued to the army about the 1st of July; and large quantities of military supplies, contracted for some time ago, are now being delivered at designated depots. There is now prevailing throughout Austria and especially along the Balkan frontier an air of determined preparation for offense or defense, that seems inconsistent with the government's declarations that the Bulgarian question will be settled amicably.

A French Duel.

PARIS, June 9.—A duel was fought yesterday between M. Arene, a member of the chamber of deputies, and M. Mayer, editor of La Lanterne. The duel was fought with swords and Mr. Mayer was wounded in the hand. The affair grew out of an attack made by M. Mayer, in his paper, upon the Corsicans, for which M. Arene, who is himself a Corsican, challenged him.

Manchester Cotton Spinners.

LONDON, June 9.—The Manchester cotton spinners have issued a circular to the mill owners of other towns urging them to co-operate with the Manchester mills in running at short time three days in each week for eight consecutive weeks, with the object of counteracting the effect, and, if possible, breaking down the Liverpool cotton corner.

More Dykes Give Away.

VIENNA, June 9.—A large number of dykes and sluices have given away in the flooded districts of Hungary to-day and the water has gained rapidly in depth over the submerged regions. Make is in imminent danger of complete inundation, the water having already covered the lower portions of the town.

Won't Agree.

PARIS, June 9.—France has notified the powers that she cannot agree to the Anglo-Turkish convention except as a basis of negotiations. The deputies of the extreme left have declared in favor of electing the French senate by universal suffrage.

A Terrible Explosion.

BERLIN, June 9.—An explosion of fire damp has occurred in a coal pit at Galsenkirchen, in Westphalia. The bodies of forty-one persons killed by the explosion have been recovered and twelve more are believed to be dead.

A Pair of Queens.

LONDON, June 9.—Queen Kapiolani arrived in London yesterday. She was met at the railway station and conveyed to her hotel by the royal carriage, sent for her use from Buckingham palace by Queen Victoria.

The Big Three.

LONDON, June 9.—The Standard Berlin correspondent telegraphs that he is reliably informed that the meeting of the emperors of Russia, Germany and Austria is likely to take place soon.

London's Imports and Exports.

LONDON, June 9.—The report of the board of trade for the month of May shows a decrease of imports of £1,100,000, and an increase of exports of £201,000.

BLAINE AND O'BRIEN.

They Both Set Sail, On Separate Steamers, However.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Mr. and Mrs. James G. Blaine and their daughters, Margaret and Hattie Blaine, left the Fifth Avenue hotel shortly after 8 o'clock this morning and reached the North German Lloyd pier at Hoboken, N. J., at 6:30 o'clock, where they boarded the steamer, Ems, which sailed for Southampton at 7:30 o'clock, having been delayed half an hour waiting for the mail pouches. The steamer Adriatic, on which William O'Brien is a passenger, sailed at 7 o'clock this morning.

The reception to Mr. O'Brien last night at the Hoffman house was a brilliant event. Leading citizens united in the ovation thus tendered under the auspices of the Irish National League and the Hoffman house committee of the Irish parliamentary fund. Ex-Mayor Grace presided.

Seriously Burned.

CAIRO, Ill., June 9.—A small fire occurred in A. Raggio's restaurant yesterday, during which his daughter Katie's clothes took fire, and she was burned severely on both limbs, right arms and face.

Valuable Colt Killed By Lightning.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 9.—Last night lightning killed for Dudley Hughes, at Morehead, the fine Wanderer filly colt Quella, by Harry O'Fallon. It was very valuable.
